1. There was very little flying activity by units of the 24th Air Army on 20 December 1950. The only units identified were a fighter regiment in Neubrandenburg and a fighter division headquarters at Peenemünde.
2. On 21 December flying continued to be on a limited scale, presumably because of adverse weather conditions. The following units were observed:
 - One fighter regiment at Neubrandenburg.
 - Fighter division headquarters at Peenemünde.
 - One reconnaissance regiment at Schönwalde.
3. Evidence has been received that two fighter corps are now stationed in Austria and Hungary, each corps consisting of nine fighter regiments.
